Village of Bensenville Welcomes Doug Eltman to Village Board

Bensenville, IL – The Village of Bensenville Board of Trustees unanimously voted to appoint Doug Eltman to serve as Village Trustee at the November 18, 2025, Village Board Meeting. Trustee Eltman took the Oath of Office and will serve the remainder of the term of late Village Trustee Marie T. Frey who passed away October 2025. This term is set to expire in June of 2027.

Village Trustee Doug Eltman is a dedicated Bensenville resident of 29 years. A graduate of Elmhurst College, Trustee Eltman has served the Bensenville community through various roles in the Bensenville Youth Athletic Association and as a fire board trustee. He has been married to his wife Vicky for 29 years and they are proud parents for two sons who attended Bensenville schools. Doug's long-standing connection to the area and his community-focused efforts make a respected and valued member of Bensenville.

"We're pleased that Doug will lend his voice and experience to the community," said Village President Frank DeSimone. "We look forward to working with him to build on this organization's success and hope the community will join us in welcoming him to the Village Board."
