Halloween Fun at Bensenville's Trunk-or-Treat

Bensenville, IL – The Village of Bensenville's 2025 Trunk-or-Treat on Center Street was a spooktacular success! On Friday, October 31, from 3 to 5 PM, Bensenville businesses and community organizations lined up their decorated vehicles along Center Street and passed out candy to costumed youngsters.

This year saw participants from Armando Perez State Farm, Barbell Fitness S&C, Bensenville Arts Council, Bensenville Community Public Library, Bensenville Emergency Management Agency, Bensenville Park District, Bensenville Police Department, Bensenville Recreation Department, Boost Mobile, Calvary Baptist Church, Elite Remodeling Group, Faith Community United Church of Christ, Girl Scouts of America, Goldfish Swim School, Grand Subaru, Just In Time Staffing, Lunairi Boutique, Roesch Ford, Roots & Wings, Santa's Village, SGA Youth and Family Services, StortoFinn Law Group, Tioga PTA, U.S. Army, Uber, and Zion Conchord Lutheran School.

A couple fun themes on display included a Jurassic Park inspired trunk, and a "Pick-a-Treat" Frankenstein's monster with candy up its nose. Attendees walked away with bagfuls of candy and still had time to Trick-or-Treat! The Village of Bensenville was thrilled by the attendance this year, and thanks everyone who joined in on the Halloween fun.
